ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.” (1 Chronicles 16,34)

“Latin Archdiocese of Trivandrum - Directory 2019” is a collection of information of persons and institutions in the Archdiocese of Trivandrum. This work attempts to narrate briefly an overall view of the archdiocese that helps the reader to have a bird’s eye view.

The “Directory” is divided into six Sections namely, Introduction, Archdiocese, Parishes, Priests, Religious, and Institutions. Each section is subdivided into further parts. The text in these parts contains the list and composition of different archdiocesan bodies like consultors, finance council, senate of priests, archdiocesan pastoral council, ministries and advisory boards besides addresses of different parishes, diocesan offices, institutions, religious houses etc.

I sincerely thank Archbishop Soosa Pakiam M. who instructed me to initiate this work for the good of all; also, thank Auxiliary Bishop Christudas R. for his guidance. Thanks to Reverend Parish priests, priests, Religious men and women and others who generously helped us in providing sufficient matter for the work. I thankfully remember seminarians Sancho Alfred who helped at the initial works of editing; and Brothers Ignatious Julian, Thomas D’Cruz, Herin Herbin who did the data collection at the parish level also Bro Franklin David who helped at the final stage of the work.

Special thanks to St. Joseph’s Press, Trivandrum for bringing out this work into printed form and the staff Mrs. Shalini for the cover design and layout.

The scope of this work is mainly meant for the people of God in the Archdiocese of Trivandrum. It is sure that, “The Directory” will be a reference tool for all in the archdiocese and outside.

GENERAL INFORMATION

THE CHURCH

The Church is the extension of the Kingdom of God, the ministry of Jesus Christ. Church had its beginning in Palestine with the historical Pentecost in Jerusalem, which happened subsequent to the resurrection and ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Church, thus started, spread to other regions of the world with the effort of the preaching of the Gospel by the Apostles to the people. As it spread, certain cities, like Jerusalem Antioch, Alexandria and Constantinople in the East and Rome in the West of the Roman Empire, and India & Mesopotamia outside the Roman Empire, became centres of Christian life and missionary endeavours. Catholic Church is the true manifestation of the Church of Christ having the Faith and Traditions as its sources, together with apostolic origin as the founding link. Those in full communion with the Catholic Church are those joined with Christ in his visible body, through the bonds of profession of faith, the sacraments and ecclesiastical governance (cf. Canon 205); they accept the authority of Pope even though they have different practices in Liturgy and traditions of faith.

BRIEF HISTORY

Christianity in the parts of present Trivandrum Archdiocese dates from the time of the arrival of the Portuguese in India and perhaps even earlier because of the presence of Catholics nearby in Quilon. With the arrival of the Portuguese, especially with the advent of the Pioneer missionary, St. Francis Xavier, Christianity spread far and wide in these parts with the result that by the close of the sixteenth century there were well established Catholic communities all along the coast of this Archdiocese. The second phase of missionary enterprise in the area begins with the dawn of the present century. Bishop Benzigar, who became coadjutor Bishop of Quilon in 1900 and eventually Bishop in 1905, was the pioneer missionary who propagated Christianity in Trivandrum through the fragrance of his saintly life, and wise leadership.

Diocese of Trivandrum was erected by the Bull “In Ora Malabarica” of Pope Pius XI, dated 1st July 1937; the ancient Diocese of Quilon was divided and the territory comprising the four Taluks of Chirayinkeezh, Nedumangad, Trivandrum and Netaattinkara was the erected into the Diocese with Trivandrum, the capital of Kerala, as the seat of the Bishop, His Excellency the Rt. Rev. Vincent V. Dereere O.C.D., Bishop of Quilon was transferred to the new Diocese of Trivandrum, which was entrusted to the Carmelite missionaries of the Flanders Providence (Belgium) which the mother Diocese of Quilon was handed over the Indian Diocese Clergy.

In 1952 when the Diocese of Alleppey was erected by the bifurcation of the Cochin Diocese, the narrow strip of coastal parishes which formed the Trivandrum Portuguese mission of the Padroado Diocese of Cochin was temporality annexed to the Trivandrum Diocese with Bishop Vincent Dereere as its administrator. On 20th May 1955 this territory, small strip along the coast from Pallithura to Erayimemanthura, was definitely integrated in the Diocese of Trivandrum. Thus the parishes from Neerody to Erayimmenthura, although they belong to the Diocese of Trivandrum, are in the Vilavancode Taluk of the Madras State.

In 1955 Bishop Vincent Dereere got an auxiliary in the person of Rev. Peter Bernard Pereira, who was eventually made coadjutor cum jure succession of Trivandrum on 4th July 1961; At the resignation of Bishop Vincent Pereira succeeded him on 24th October 1966; thus the Diocese of Trivandrum passed on to the hands of the indigenous clergy of the Diocese. Bishop Pereira was succeeded by Bishop Jacob Acharuparampil OFM Cap, on October 07, 1979. On 02.12.1989 Rev. Dr. Soosa Pakiam M. was appointed as his coadjutor and later, on 31.01.1991, begun to lead the diocese.

On July 16, 1996, by the Bull “Ad Aptius Provehendum” Pope John Paul II established the Diocese of Neyyattinkara, bifurcating the Taluks of Neyyattinkara (except the coastal strip) and Nedumangad from the Diocese of Trivandrum.

On 17th June 2004, Holy Father Pope John Paul II has elevated the Diocese of Trivandrum into an Archdiocese and appointed Bishop Soosa Pakiam M. as its first Archbishop.
